

Passages Sunday Class

Spring 2024

9:45-10:45 a.m. | S203 Pattie Cole and Zoom

Biblically and theologically based lessons and discussions in this class help adults of all ages respond to the call to live faithfully in the world today. Topics include scriptural study, theology, mental wellness, and outreach.

Apr. 7 | Theology and AI - Mark Caldwell

Artificial Intelligence is seemingly everywhere. As the technology continues to evolve, what questions should we be asking as a faith community?

Apr. 14 | Climate change: The popular discussion vs. the scientific perspective – Dr. Jack Scheff

At UNCCCharlotte, Professor Scheff's research focuses on understanding the impact of global climate change on Earth's water cycle, atmospheric circulation, and weather systems, providing a comprehensive understanding of these subjects while also engaging in public outreach initiatives

Apr. 21 | Getting to Know Brian McLaren - Rev. Pen Peery

Get to know the 2024 Willard Lecturer and where he finds hope today.

April 28 | Faith and Our Ecological Crisis – Brian McLaren – Author, theologian, and Willard Lecturer Brian McLaren will share his view that loving our neighbors and ourselves means treating the earth in a way that reverses our current ecocide against the whole web of life.

May 5 | 50 Days, 7 Deacons, 1 Martyr– Rev. Robert Galloway– How the Spirit moved in the early church.

May 12 | Global and Local Missions at FPC – various ministry leaders

Celebrate a year of ministry within the Charlotte community and beyond.